

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

HB 767 – SB 1344

March 25, 2017

SUMMARY OF BILL: Exempts employers and employees who have been convicted of crimes described in Tenn. Code Ann. § 49-5-413(d)(3), from the prohibition of coming into direct contact with school children or children in a childcare program, if twenty or more years have elapsed between the offense and the date the criminal history records check was conducted.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- The legislation makes no changes to the processes regarding criminal background checks. Therefore, the fiscal impact of this bill on state government is estimated to be not significant.
- The local fiscal impact of lifting the prohibition of coming into direct contact with school children or children in a childcare program, if twenty or more years have elapsed between the offense and the date the criminal history records check was conducted is estimated to be not significant
